JANUARY 17, 2012

Shutts & Bowen Real Estate Partner, Margaret A. "Peggy" Rolando, Florida Bar Board Certified in Real Estate Law and a member of ACREL, spoke at the upcoming ALI-ABA course entitled "Bulk Sales & Purchases of Distressed Condominium Units." The course was held on Tuesday, January 31, 2012.

The course was presented in cooperation with The American College of Real Estate Lawyer (ACREL). This is the premier organization of U.S. real estate lawyers and admission is by invitation only after a rigorous screening process.

The panel discussed in detail how to handle the bulk sale or purchase of distressed condo units. They also provided practical advice on how to identify and avoid costly mistakes.
