

YINE RODRIGUEZ PEREZ

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Represented electronics and electrical engineering company in $2B AAA arbitration related to construction of supercritical coal-fired generation facility
- Successfully advised state-owned petrochemical company in multi-million-dollar litigation and in corporate transactional matters related to dispute
- Successfully advised state-owned company in structuring of an oil- and gas-specific services contract of $4.9B with initial disbursement of $1B
- Representing a South American client in federal court proceedings involving the enforcement of a $465M arbitration award
- Representing a Central American country in investment treaty arbitration related to the expropriation of real estate assets for an ecotourism project
- Representing a Central American country in investment treaty arbitration related to the expropriation of a mining concession
- Representing a Central American country in investment treaty arbitration related to the expropriation of a trading house in violation of securities law
- Represented the board of directors of a leading energy company in its acquisition of a utility company in the U.S. and its listing in the NYSE
- Advises on Cuban law and related issues for multinational companies doing business in Cuba