

Kasey Feltner Presents to HCBA on COVID-19 and Real Property

Tampa
10.30.20

Kasey A. Feltner, an attorney in Shutts & Bowen's Tampa office, taught a CLE program to the Real Property, Probate & Trust Section of the Hillsborough County Bar Association on October 22, 2020.

Kasey presented the CLE course, titled "COVID-19 and its effect on Real Property Law," via webinar and discussed the unprecedented interruption the pandemic has caused within the legal community, specifically on the areas of real property litigation and transactional interactions. He spoke on the requirements imposed by federal and state governments regarding evictions, foreclosures and force majeure interpretations. The seminar also discussed leases, Homeowner and Condominium Associations, Cares Act Loans and focused on the real experiences of attorneys dealing with these issues.

According to The Florida Bar, the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section works to "improve the implementation and application of laws, rules and regulations in the fields of real property, probate and trust law and to accomplish legislative objectives and to improve the administration of real property, probate and trust laws."
