

Legal Aid Programs in Broward County Presented 2020 Annual Recognition Awards

9.3.20

Fort Lauderdale partner Edward O'Sheehan was recently recognized as "Attorney of the Year" by Legal Aid Service of Broward County (LAS) and Coast to Coast Legal Aid of South Florida (CCLA). The awards were presented during a series of on-line virtual events August 18 – 20 through the organization's Facebook pages at Facebook.com/CoasToCoastLegalAid and Facebook.com/LegalAidBroward.

Ed was singled out for his extensive involvement with Legal Aid's programs and advancing the organization's mission of providing free civil legal services to the under-privileged. His efforts have included mentoring attorneys, testifying for attorney fee cases, handling pro bono cases, and being actively involved in the Missions United Veterans Pro Bono Project, which was created to provide access to civil justice for military veterans. He has also worked hard as a member of Legal Aid's Board of Directors and provided pro bono work for the Office of the Public Guardian in Broward County for more than 15 years.

"The ongoing need for volunteer legal assistance and vital supportive services to the poor and disadvantaged affects the daily life of many people in our community, including veterans, seniors and families," said Sherylle Francis, Esq., chair of the LAS/CCLA board of directors. "These awards honor those who recognize that need and have committed themselves to serving the community."

During the series of online virtual events, thousands of legal professionals, community leaders, and friends and families watched each honoree receive their award as they made brief remarks.
