Shutts & Bowen Recognized as a 2020 AmLaw 200 Firm for Sixth Year in a Row

The American Lawyer
6.3.20

Shutts & Bowen was recently recognized in the 2020 AmLaw 200, a ranking compiled by The American Lawyer that categorizes law firms by revenue, profits-per-partner and number of lawyers.

Shutts was among the top ranks of Florida's law firms, ranking at No. 161 in the 2020 AmLaw 200 list. In addition to increased headcount, the Firm's gross revenue rose by 6.5 percent in the fiscal year ending on Dec. 31, 2019, outperforming the average law firm growth rate of 5 percent. As in previous years, the Firm outranked the average among its peers in both profits per partner and headcount growth.

Bowman Brown, Chairman of Shutts & Bowen’s Executive Committee, attributes continued growth to strong performances in each of the Firm’s major practice areas, and every one of its eight Florida offices. “Our continuous growth over our 110 year history has provided us the accelerated momentum necessary to embark into 2020, which will prove to be a challenging year for the legal industry as whole,” said Brown.

The AmLaw 200, a ranking of the 200 highest-grossing law firms in the United States, is reported by ALM business of law journalists and researchers, and includes details on the financial performance of ranked law firms. For more information on the 2020 AmLaw 200 rankings, click here.
