Real Estate partner Alexander Tachmes was recently quoted in the Miami Herald about the proposal to limit alcohol sales on Ocean Drive. Miami Beach commissioners unanimously agreed to let voters decide whether to adopt an ordinance ending alcohol sales in outdoor venues at 2 a.m. instead of 5 a.m.

The proposed ordinance would affect only outdoor venues on Ocean Drive. However, the article notes Alex’s opinion, which states that “a large part of the appeal of Ocean Drive’s nightlife, particularly for those from colder climates, is the ability to have drinks outside late into the evening.”

Alex represents the Ocean Drive Association and was a key figure in the development of the 10-Point Plan, already in motion.

To read the full article, please click here.

Related News Links

- Miami Beach voters to decide whether to restrict outdoor alcohol sales on Ocean Drive
- Miami Beach Voters To Decide on Ocean Drive Alcohol Sales

About Alexander I. Tachmes

Alexander I. Tachmes is a partner in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is Chair of the Land Use and Government Relations Practice Group and a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. A Martindale-Hubbell AV® rated attorney, Alex concentrates his practice on governmental matters, including land use and zoning, public-private transactions, competitive bidding and lobbying, and commercial real estate transactions, including hospitality matters.