Deborah Getzoff Speaks at the 62nd Florida Shore & Beach Preservation Conference

9.23.19

Shutts & Bowen LLP was pleased to sponsor the 62nd Annual Florida Shore & Beach Preservation Association Conference, held September 18 through 20 at on Hutchinson Island in Martin County. Deborah Getzoff, a partner out of the Tampa office, was a featured conference educational speaker on the topic, “Coastal Law Update: Case & Final Orders Concerning Florida Beaches.”

The 2019 Conference was attended by several hundred attendees, including local beachfront government staff and officials, coastal engineers and consultants, dredging firms, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and state environmental resource protection agencies. The 62nd Conference program featured discussions on a wide array of interesting and relevant coastal topics. Deborah’s talk focused on administrative and case updates including cases where Shutts’ environmental team in Tampa had successfully represented coastal applicants for Florida Department of Environmental Protection approvals.

Founded in 1957, the Florida Shore & Beach Preservation Association promotes effective beach management and preservation policies by working with local, state, and federal agencies to address statewide beach erosion. To learn more about the annual conference, click here.

About Deborah A. Getzoff

Deborah Getzoff is a partner in the Shutts Tampa office, where she is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. With more than 35 years of environmental and administrative law experience in both the private and public sectors, Deborah has had extensive experience representing developers, hotels, beach communities and condominiums in the permitting of land development projects, beach and coastal construction/protection projects, and marinas before state and federal environmental agencies.
