Erik Szabo Speaks at GOBA Construction Defects/Stucco Litigation Seminar

8.30.19

Shutts & Bowen LLP partner Erik F. Szabo recently presented at the Greater Orlando Builders Association's (GOBA) Developers Council Construction Defects/Stucco Litigation Seminar. Speaking on the “Anatomy of a Construction Defect Claim,” Erik presented to developers, builders and associate members who meet monthly to discuss prominent issues relating to the residential construction industry.

At the seminar Erik, who serves on GOBA's Board of Directors, advised builders on the general process of a construction defect claim, providing practice points for mitigating a claim (before, during and after it has been made) from the perspective of legal counsel. The Construction Defect Seminar also featured perspectives from building experts, consultants and insurance professionals during the presentation.

The Greater Orlando Builders Association (GOBA) is the authority, educator and promoter of the housing and building industry serving more than 700 members. Since 1953, GOBA has served the construction industry in Seminole, Orange and Osceola Counties including its cities. By representing and promoting the building industry, GOBA encourages higher standards of practice through education and by taking a proactive role in the governmental and regulatory activities that impact the construction industry. The Developers Council meets monthly to discuss the residential construction industry, offering a variety of programs that include networking and professional panel discussions.
