Harvey Oyer Emcees Gold Star Memorial Dedication Ceremony

10.10.19
On September 25, West Palm Beach partner and Marine Corps Captain Harvey Oyer was the Master of Ceremonies for the dedication of the Gold Star Families Memorial Monument in West Palm Beach. The ceremony included WWII Medal of Honor recipient Hershel “Woody” Williams and U.S. Southern Command Military Commander Lt. General Michael Plehn, two dozen Gold Star families, and dozens of elected officials. The purpose of the monument is to honor and remember our fallen military who made the ultimate sacrifice and the Gold Star Families who continue to endure their loss.

During the ceremony, the Gold Star Family Memorial monument was unveiled. Additionally, Harvey was honored by Medal of Honor recipient Woody Williams with a medal making Harvey an honorary Board Member of the Hershel “Woody” Williams Medal of Honor Foundation by Woody Williams, a Medal of Honor Recipient.
