

Joseph M. Goldstein Named to Broward Public Library Foundation Board

12.15.10

Joseph M. Goldstein, a partner in Shutts & Bowen's Fort Lauderdale Office, has been named to the Broward Public Library Foundation Board of Directors. He will hold that position for a three year term.

The Broward Public Library Foundation is committed to enhancing the collections, programs and services of the Broward County Library system beyond the means of public funding. The Broward Public Library is the ninth largest library system in the United States.

Mr. Goldstein is Florida Bar Board Certified in Business Litigation and focuses his practice on commercial litigation; government contracts, including bid protests; employment litigation, especially involving noncompetition agreements; and real estate disputes. He generally represents defense companies, technology firms, construction firms and government service providers.
