

Shutts & Bowen makes Top Ten in the 100 Largest Law Firms in Florida Report

7.14.16

According to a recent Daily Business Review Special Report, Shutts & Bowen ranked seventh among the 100 largest law firms in Florida. The results show a firm growing in both the number of lawyers and in revenue.

Shutts added the full-time equivalent of 14 attorneys in 2015, a 6% increase from the previous year. The firm's total partners count also increased by 6%, adding 10 more partners from last year. Gross revenue increased 7.7% to $147 million in 2015 from 2014, making the top ten list of Florida's highest-grossing firms of the year, and its profit per partner grew 5.7% to $740,000 in the same period.

The Daily Business Review reports a focus on specializing in high-end practice areas, such as international tax law and real estate, to drive this growth.
