Shutts & Bowen Partners Included in Florida Trend’s Florida 500

9.10.19

Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to announce that three partners have been selected for inclusion in Florida Trend Magazine’s 2019 “Florida 500” special issue. Bowman Brown, Chairman of Shutts & Bowen’s Executive Committee and Chair of the Financial Services Practice Group, Harvey Oyer III, a partner in the Real Estate Practice Group and Rachel E. Nordby, a partner in the Appellate Practice Group, have been selected as being among Florida’s 500 Most Influential Business Leaders.

Shutts & Bowen is the only law firm to have three of its attorneys (the maximum allowed by the editorial department) included in the “Florida 500”. Bowman, Harvey and Rachel are among 53 total attorneys selected to this prestigious list of influential leaders across 16 industries throughout the state.

The Florida 500 highlights influential executives in different economic sectors throughout the state. An underlying theme of those included is “a love for Florida, a concern for its future – and a grasp of the issues that define the state.”

The editorial selection of the 500 was based on extensive contacts in regional business circles, hundreds of interviews and months of research, culminating in a highly selective biographical guide to the people who really influence what happens in Florida.
