

Shutts & Bowen Ranked Among Top Central Florida Law Firms by OBJ

8.9.19

Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to have been ranked among the top Central Florida law firms by the Orlando Business Journal (OBJ) in separate 2019 lists, including “Central Florida’s Largest Litigation Law Firms” and “Central Florida’s Largest Intellectual Property Law Firms.”

The “Central Florida Largest Litigation Law Firms” list ranked Shutts No. 6 among several other nationally-recognized local firms. The “Central Florida Largest Intellectual Property Law Firms” list placed Shutts at No. 12. “These rankings reflect the strength and diversity of our practice in both litigation and intellectual property,” said Mary Ruth Houston, Co-Managing Partner of the Orlando office. “Shutts is pleased to be able to serve our clients in these areas, as well as in all of our other practice areas.”

The OBJ lists identifying Shutts rank law firms by the number of litigation attorneys and intellectual property attorneys within firms in the Central Florida area, denoting Lake, Orange, Osceola and Seminole counties. The OBJ is owned by parent company American City Business Journals (ACBJ), which is the largest publisher of metropolitan business newsweeklies in the United States, with 43 business publications across the country reaching more than 3.6 million readers each week.
