South Florida Managing Partners Selected as Power Leaders; Firm Ranked 4th in List of South Florida Law Firms

6.6.17

Shutts & Bowen is pleased to announce that partners Joseph M. Goldstein, Arthur J. Menor and Francis E. Rodríguez have been selected as Power Leaders in Law by the South Florida Business Journal. The publication selected attorneys “renowned for their legal acumen” to be distinguished as leaders in their field. These profiles highlight their greatest professional accomplishments, community accomplishments and include personal notes about each leader.

Additionally, the firm was ranked 4th in the publication’s list of South Florida Law Firms. Firms included on the list were ranked by number of South Florida partners.

Joseph M. Goldstein, included as a FIVE-TIMER on the Power Leaders list, is the Managing Partner of the Fort Lauderdale office of Shutts & Bowen LLP and a member of the Business Litigation Practice Group. A Martindale-Hubbell AV® rated attorney, Joseph is among the less than one percent of attorneys who are Florida Bar Board Certified in Business Litigation.

Arthur J. Menor, included as a FIVE-TIMER on the Power Leaders list, is the Managing Partner of the West Palm Beach office of Shutts & Bowen LLP and a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. A nationally recognized real estate lawyer, Art has 37 years of experience in all facets of commercial real estate, focusing on commercial leasing and the acquisition and disposition of commercial real estate.

Francis E. “Frank” Rodríguez, included as a LISTMAKER on the Power Leaders list, is the Managing Partner of the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP and Co-Chair of the Tax and International Law Practice Group. A Martindale-Hubbell AV® rated attorney, Frank focuses his practice on general business transactions, with an emphasis on federal and Florida tax issues.
