Steve Parson earns PulteGroup's 2015 MVP Award at Annual Law Summit

2.16.16

Steve Parson, a partner in the West Palm Beach office, was recently named by The PulteGroup as one of five national winners of its 2015 MVP Award. Steve was honored at the PulteGroup's annual Law Summit attended by several hundred attorneys and approximately 75 law firms from across the country.

Steve is a long time outside attorney for the Florida Pulte team. As part of their nomination, they said: “He has a very good understanding of Pulte's business objectives and risk tolerance, and he works seamlessly with the division Ops Team. During the past year, Steve closed a number of large transactions in the [San Francisco] market and he continues to provide valued and efficient legal representation.”

The PulteGroup is one of the nation’s largest homebuilders with operations in about 50 major metro markets. Since its founding in 1950, PulteGroup has delivered more than 650,000 homes.

Steve Parson is a partner in the West Palm Beach office and a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. Steve assists lenders and borrowers in real estate acquisition, development, construction and sale, commercial leasing, lending and high-profile loan workouts and foreclosures. A Martindale-Hubbell AV® Preeminent™ rated attorney, Steve has been consistently recognized by his peers and rating services as a top real estate lawyer.
