

James Timko to Present on the Legal Aspects of Turnarounds

10.20.16

James Timko, a partner in our Orlando office and Florida Chapter President of the Turnaround Management Association, will be presenting on the legal aspects of turnarounds and distressed companies during the “Steering Companies through Troubled Waters” seminar presented by Rollins College Crummer Graduate School of Business and the Florida Chapter of Turnaround Management Association on November 9.

This event is intended for business owners and executives as well as legal, accounting, finance and turnaround professionals. In three sessions, the event will cover warning signs and countermeasures of distress including operational, legal and financing considerations.

About James Timko

James A. Timko is a partner in the Orlando office of Shutts & Bowen, where he is a member of the Creditors’ Rights/Bankruptcy Practice Group. James has received Martindale-Hubbell’s highest rating as an attorney whose practice involves distressed assets, bankruptcy and commercial litigation. He’s also a certified circuit civil mediator. James represents local and national creditors, debtors, secured, lenders, mortgage companies, landlords, franchisors, bankruptcy trustees and other business enterprises in chapter 7 and chapter 11 bankruptcy cases and in assignment for the benefit of creditors cases.

About the Florida Turnaround Management Association

The Turnaround Management Association (TMA) is a global non-profit organization comprised of turnaround and corporate renewal professionals with more than 9,000 members in 55 chapters including 32 in North America. Learn more about the organization and its members at <https://turnaround.org/about-tma>.

Professionals

James A. Timko

Practice Areas

Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy