

Partner James Timko to moderate panel at TMA Florida Winter Conference

2.4.16

The Turnaround Management Association annual Florida Winter Conference will take place at the Hyatt Regency in Ft. Lauderdale on February 18-19. Shutts partner and TMA Florida Chapter president James Timko will be moderating the “Turnaround Tricks for Start Up Companies” panel featuring leaders in investment and banking.

The annual event brings together turnaround practitioners, lenders, appraisers, attorneys, auctioneers/liquidators, investment bankers, private equity groups, intermediaries, and hedge fund managers for two days of panels, networking and a community service event. The Dean of Rollins College’s School of Business, Thomas McEvoy, will deliver the keynote address on “Leadership, the Essential Management Skill.”

TMA is the premier organization dedicated to corporate renewal and turnaround management. It has more than 9,000 members in 49 chapters around the world.

For more information and to register, visit the TMA Florida Conference and Golf Tournament website here.

About James Timko

James A. Timko is a partner in the Orlando office of Shutts & Bowen, where he is a member of the Creditors' Rights/Bankruptcy Practice Group. A certified circuit civil mediator, Jim represents local and national creditors, debtors, secured, lenders, mortgage companies, landlords, franchisors, bankruptcy trustees and other business enterprises in chapter 7 and chapter 11 bankruptcy cases and in assignment for the benefit of creditors cases. He currently serves as the president of the Florida chapter of the Turnaround Management Association and regularly speaks and writes nationally on creditors’ rights and bankruptcy law.

Professionals

James A. Timko