

Shutts & Bowen Partner Certified as Specialist in Business Litigation

8.9.12

Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to announce that partner Hank Jackson has been certified as a specialist by the Florida Bar in Business Litigation. Board Certification by the Florida Bar is a voluntary program approved by The Florida Supreme Court. To obtain this Board Certification, Mr. Jackson was required to demonstrate substantial involvement in the area of business litigation, pass a written examination specific to business litigation, and satisfy a peer review assessment by both judges and lawyers regarding his competence, ethics and professionalism. Out of Florida's more than 90,000 lawyers, only 239 are Board Certified in Business Litigation.

Mr. Jackson is a partner in Shutts & Bowen's West Palm Beach office, where he represents a wide variety of clients in the fields of medicine (hospitals, physicians, therapists, and suppliers), real estate (developers, lenders, and brokers), hospitality (hotel owners and management companies), agriculture, insurance, telecommunications, accounting, and various manufacturing. His cases often involve claims such as breach of contract, interference with business relationships, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, misappropriation of trade secrets, unfair trade practices, and trademark infringement.

Shutts & Bowen LLP is a full service law firm that represents individuals and business entities nationally and internationally. Founded in 1910, the firm has more than 225 attorneys, and offices in Fort Lauderdale, Miami, Orlando, Tallahassee, Tampa, West Palm Beach and Amsterdam.

Please contact Mr. Jackson for more information at hjackson@shutts.com.

Professionals

Hank Jackson

Practice Areas

Litigation